

Announcing the exciting new position we are recruiting:
Commercial & Technical Director

The training centre was founded and is directed by Aaron and Sarah Beecher, a dedicated family from the UK. The vision for the centre started in 1995 in response to the need for vocational training for young adults, to create sustainable employment and income to support their families. Students undertake 2 year training programs in the following trades:

Carpentry & Furniture Making, Metalwork & Welding, Automotive Mechanics and Vegetable Gardening

"Our student's lives and families are transformed through the partnership of high quality practical training and personal renewal by the gospel of Jesus Christ. Our passion and goal is to train for excellence so that graduates have the capacity to both train others and gain valuable employment."

To date we have graduated 140 students with 63 % gaining employment in formal and informal sectors and Tariro has a current capacity to train 60 students at any one time.

Commercial & Technical Director

With a current annual turnover of $190,000, (of which 80% is generated by the sale of products made at the training centre), the Commercial & Technical Director will maintain and widen the existing client base, increase the product range and supervise the production process. Tariro's productivity and long-term viability will move to the next level under your leadership.

You will bring to Tariro your technical qualification at either, degree level or professional trade qualification/experience. You are competent in spoken Portuguese or are willing to learn, have good team building skills and previous leadership experience. You have a good understanding of administrative procedures. You have a mature Christian faith and are patient & comfortable working with a cross cultural team.

This voluntary mission worker position is for a 2 year commitment starting January 2015, good accommodation and a local monthly salary in the region of $500 USD is provided by Tariro.

Tariro Vision

We equip young men & women to realise the dream of becoming employable through building their skills, disciplining their characters and providing the opportunity for each one to meet with Jesus Christ.

For further information and to submit an application please contact:

Aaron Beecher: aaron@tariro.net

Tariro Christian Technical Training Centre is registered in Mozambique with the National Institute for Employment and Professional Training as Centro Cristão de Formação Profissional Tariro. It is operated by Associação Tariro which is registered in Mozambique as a national non-profit association.